

:APPRAISAL:

This appraisal is written about one Navajo rug/textile witnessed by me on this date of April 28, 2007 and is currently part of the W & V Miller estate of Baytown, Texas.

{Rug photos attached}

The textile/rug is hand-woven in the traditional style of the Dine {Navajo} Nation Native Americans of the Southwest.

:Detailed Rug/Textile Description:

This textile/rug measures approximately 64" x 46" overall.

The textile/rug features a variation of a design commonly known as a "Hubbell Ganado". The Hubbell Ganado pattern is well known to the indigenous, Native American weavers of the Southwestern United States and is often replicated and/or altered by them.

This Hubbell Ganado textile contains the classic symbol of a central row containing a chevron or step-diamond design accented with a two additional rows of partial chevrons.

This Hubbell Ganado features two distinct black lines separating the chevron designs.

There are 3 colors used in the creation of this textile, they are as follows: bone white, black and brick red.

{See photos for design and color details}

The wefts per inch for this textile are approximately 70 to 80 on average thus creating a very tightly woven textile with excellent design detail.

Attached to the rug is a tag indicating the actual maker of this textile. The artists name is Sarah Yazzie, a 4/4 member of the Navajo nation, Arizona.

Styling and weave type of the textile/rug is indicative of 1980's to present.

The rug is in excellent – like new condition.

The current "fair market value" of this Navajo ~ Hubbell Ganado design rug/textile as of this date as determined by this appraiser is $7900.00

Current value determination is made by the availability of this type of artwork throughout the United States at various retail outlets.
