Dear Wayne and Virginia,

Please find enclosed the certificates of authenticity and the artist's biography for your paintings "Blue Bonnets" by White-Spinner and "Quail" by Suire. Make copies of the certificates and the biographies, staple the copies to the backs of your paintings, and file the originals.

These delightful pieces will be wonderful addition to your collection.

Let me know if you are looking for another particular subject matter. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Gayle Berard

Joan E. White-Spunner

If you invest in beauty, it will remain with you all the days of your life – Frank Lloyd Wright.

Joan White-Spunner is a self-taught artist from Mobile, Alabama. Her dedication and discipline to her craft inspired her to join the co-op Cathedral Square Gallery in Mobile. There, her reputation grew through her gallery exposure, and her faithful patrons. As a result, White-Spunner has supported herself solely on her art for the past eight years. She has completed over 225 portrait and landscape commissions over the past ten years

Over the years White-Spunner has been recognized with numerous awards, including two Best of Show at the Pride Arts Show in Mobile. Her work graces many private and corporate collections.
